

Special Presentation by

Bryan Winston
Head Coach

Spokane Community College

Bryan Winston is the Head Baseball Coach with the Community Colleges of Spokane. He works with the infielders as well as the short game with the hitters. Winston graduated from Richland High School in Richland, Washington in 2003. While playing at CCS, Bryan was named to the Second Team East Region as an infielder in 2004. In 2005, he earned both First Team East Region and First Team All-NWAACC selections. After his two years at CCS, Bryan finished his playing career at Gonzaga University as well as earning a degree in history. He recently finished his master's degree in secondary education.

Seth Heckel

Assistant Baseball Coach

Spokane Community
College

Seth is the current pitching coach at Spokane Falls Community College. For the past four summers he has been the pitching coach for the Spokane Expos, a local travel baseball team. Seth is a Mt. Spokane alum and after graduating he played baseball at Chemeketa Community College for two years and finished his playing career at Midland University. Upon graduating from Midland he accepted a Graduate Assistant position at Wayne State College working in the Health, Human Performance & Sport department. After completing his Masters Degree in Exercise Science he moved back to Spokane and opened up a gym geared towards training baseball players/athletes and now trains multiple college baseball teams, professional players and local area players.
