Gonzaga Bulldogs
Baseball

In his first year with the Zags, Sean Winston helped guide the team to its third WCC regular season title and to an at-large berth to the NCAA Regionals, the program's first.

Winston came to Spokane with five years of coaching experience. Most recently, he was an assistant coach at Paradise Valley Community College in Phoenix where he helped lead the Pumas to the ACCAC Championship in 2015. Over his three seasons at Paradise Valley, Winston coached one NJCAA National Gold Glove Award winner and three finalists.

Before coaching, Winston played for two years at Hawaii Pacific in Honolulu, where he was a two-time First Team All-Conference second basemen and helped the Sea Warriors to a Pac-West Conference Championship and a second-place finish at the 2010 Western Regional. Before heading to the Islands, Winston spent two years at Lower Columbia College in Longview, Wash., where he led the Red Devils to two division titles and a second-place finish in the NWAC Championship in 2008.

Winston graduated from Hawaii Pacific with a BSBA in business management in 2010. He's currently working on a Master's in Business Administration from Grand Canyon University.
